CWShredder is a handy solution which can solve all your issues caused by CoolWebSearch. It effectively removes all unwanted elements from your PC, does not affect its performance and just as effective as a registry cleaner. There was a tool called CWShredder, but it was not developed with Mac users in mind. * Search is performed in the Online database, which can be updated from time to time. * No on-line updates after the setup, so no additional costs * You will be notified when updates are available. * No support is provided after purchase. * After the purchase, you can download free updates, as well as the demo version of the program. * The license is not perpetual; it expires in 60 days. * A single user can use the licensed version of the software. * The software has been installed on PCs worldwide. * All users can access the online help desk during the activation process. * Use the help desk to keep your license active and/or install updates. If you would like to find out more about it, you can follow the link bellow: Finding CoolWebSearch on your computer If you start your computer, open the browser and find out that instead of connecting to Google, you are automatically redirected to other websites that advise you to download all kinds of unknown applications for cleaning what seems to be an infected system. It happened to you, it happened to us and it is becoming a common thing. Chances are that your computer is infected with CoolWebSearch. Or maybe you prefer CoolWwwSearch, White-Pages.ws, YouFindAll, or one of the many names this browser infection uses when hijacking applications. CWShredder is a dedicated application that can help you in this matter, as it removes CoolWebSearch from your computer and keeps your browsers secure. Start the process and view results Since the whole disinfection process might be a bit complicated when you have to deal with infected files, CWShredder has been designed as a stand-alone executable file which does not require installation and is compatible with all Windows versions. All you have to do is to open this tiny tool and start scanning your entire system by simply clicking the appropriate button. In real time, it is possible to view all the types of malware it has look for problems or questions, just contact Customer Service and we will do our best to resolve it for you. I want to register a complaint about the site. I am an AT&T phone customer, and the printout I received today said that for my router I would be billed in the amount of $13.99 for an adjustment fee; I didn't recall seeing any such an adjustment fee, and had I known about the fee I would not have paid for the requested upgrade. My request to cancel my order and to request a refund was denied. I will never use this service because it is a ripoff of customers. This is very upsetting and I would expect a response from the Customer Service.
